

CONTENTS

Introduction	11
Rüdiger Ahrens (University of Würzburg, Germany)
Identity and Alterity in Post-colonial Film Versions: A Passage to India and Apocalypse Now	17
Nonye Ahumibe (Godfrey Okoye University, Enugu, Nigeria)
The Image and Identity of the 21st-Century African Woman in Akachi Adimora’s Children of the Eagle	35
Yasue Arimitsu (Doshisha University, Kyoto, Japan)
Nam Le’s The Boat: A Reflection of Multiple Selves	51
Laksmisree Banerjee (Kolhan University, Chaibasa, India)
Ethical Perspectives & Cultural Nationalities in the Writings of Global Indian Women Poets	69
Meira Chand (University of Singapore, Singapore)
Transcending a Socially and Nationally Constructed Self: The Impact of Migrations and Imaginative Processes on a Postcolonial Identity	81
Geoffrey V. Davis (Aachen University, Germany)
“What Kind of England Do We Want?” Not Black and White in Britain	89
Andre Furlani (Concordia University, Canada)
“That Mad (?) Mathematician”: Beckett Reckoning with Wittgenstein	107
Brigitte Johanna Glaser (University of Göttingen, Germany)
The Influence of Globalisation and Transnationalism on Anglophone Canadian Literature	123
Lisa Grekul (University of British Columbia, Kelowna, Canada)
Bad Guys, Brides, and Buffoons: A Short History of Tractors in Ukrainian and the ‘Othered’ Europe	139

Otto Heim (University of Hong Kong, China) Literary Citizenship in the Writing of Oceania: The Example of John Kneubuhl and Albert Wendt	153
Myrtle Hooper (University of Zululand, KwaZulu Natal, South Africa) Caritas and Habitus in Dan Jacobson’s “The Zulu and the Zeide”	173
Susan Ingram and Markus Reisenleitner (York University, Toronto, Canada) Zero History: William Gibson’s Post-Geographical Global Concerns	191
Youngmin Kim (Dongguk University, Seoul, Korea) The Genealogy of Othering in Postcolonialism/Diaspora & Postnationalism/Transnationalism	205
Karen King-Aribisala (University of Lagos, Nigeria) The Quest for Twinship in the Nigerian Novel	219
Helmut Meier (University of Innsbruck, Austria) Precarious Utopias: James Ramsay, the Representation of Africans and the Negotiation of Identities in the British Debate on the Slave Trade	239
Jyoti Nandan (University of Fiji, Lautoka, Fiji) ‘Difference’ – and Beyond ‘Difference’	257
Satendra Nandan (University of Fiji, Lautoka, Fiji) The Teacher as a Writer	265
John Ikechukwu Obasikene (Enugu State University of Science and Technology, Enugu, Nigeria) Cultural Hybridization in Modern African Dramatic Literature in English: the Nigerian Example – Soyinka, Clark, Osofisan, Onwueme, and Irobi	275
Ulrich Pallua (University of Innsbruck, Austria) “Wretches design’d to be their Masters Dogs, and lick their Feet”: The Character of the African Slave in Selected Plays from the Abolition Period: 1772-1838	293
Cynthia Rauth (University of Innsbruck, Austria) The Image of the Master in Afro-British Slave Narratives	315

Nobuyoshi Saito (Doshisha University, Kyoto, Japan) Lafcadio Hearn's Identity Formation through Fantastic Optics	337
Chitra Sankaran (National University of Singapore, Singapore) Landscape, Pain and Ecological Encounters in Jean Arasanayagam's All is Burning	347
Santosh K. Sareen (Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, India) Cross-Cultural Reading: Addressing 'Marked' Reading or Misreading with Special Reference to Australian Studies in India	361
Kirpal Singh (Singapore Management University, Singapore) The Ethics of Transnational Perspectives: Personal and Polemical Reflections	367
Andrea Strolz (University of Innsbruck, Austria) "Trees standing in the water": Toronto's 'Visible Minorities' in Dionne Brand's What We All Long For (2005)	373
Lily Rose Tope (University of the Philippines, Manila, Philippines) The Foreign Educated: Failed Hybridities in Miguel Syjuco's Ilustrado	387
Janette Turner Hospital (University of South Carolina, Columbia, USA) Something to Declare: Lost Language, Smuggled Heritage, and Undeclared Trauma at Border Crossings	399
Masami Usui (Doshisha University, Kyoto, Japan) Lost and Found from 9/11 to 3/11: Hawaii's Local Voice Enclosed in a Transnational Sphere	409
Cynthia Vanden Driesen (Edith Cowan University, Perth, Australia) The 'Other' Within: Identity, Belonging and Hybridity in the Australian Context – Perspectives from Grenville's The Secret River and The Lieutenant	421
Eleonore Wildburger (University of Klagenfurt, Austria) 'Reading' Indigenous Australian Art: A Cross-Cultural Perspective	433